

provflux 2006 :: PARTICIPATION FORM

Proposal Application and Guidelines

The Providence Initiative for Psychogeographic Studies (PIPS) is looking for experimental projects in contemporary urban exploration and public art. Provflux brings together a wide range of artists, thinkers, and thrillseekers for a weekend of interventions, discussions, explorations, and citywide entertainment.

The projects can take any form, providing it engages notions of urban space and the public's interaction with it. Interventions, actions, urban installations, presentations, and any other projects of this nature will all be considered. All disciplines are encouraged to submit material.

The deadline for proposals is May 1st, 2006.

Name individual/group: _____

Address: _____

Email: _____ Phone#: _____

URL : _____

Name of Project: _____

Brief Project Description (continue on back if needed):

---

---

---

Possible Applicable Categories (Please Check One):

- Public Intervention/ Performance/ Participatory Sculpture
- Urban Exploration (derives, tours, abandoned space tours, etc)
- Lost Space Recovery/ Temporary Installations
- Tech Mapping (gps mapping, projections, generative psygeo)
- Lecture/ Discussion/ Theory
- Games/ Experimental Public Art
- Other: _____

A brief Mission Statement and/or Resume should be included in application.

Send all information via:

post PIPS :: po box 29492 :: providence ri :: 02909

email pipsworks@gmail.com

please note: Include all relevant digital image, audio, or video files with completed form. Supporting attachments, descriptions, and URLs are encouraged. Lecture/ discussion proposals should include copies of texts and/or brief synopsis of material to be considered.